Vienna, Auguſt 31, N. S.

WE have an Account, that the Turks being informed the Prince of Saxe Hildburgſhauſen had embarked his Infantry on the Save, and ordered his Horſe to march by Land to join the grand Army of the Imperialiſts, the Turks drew together a great Number of Troops to intercept him; but after ſome Diſpute the Turks were forced to betake themſelves to Flight with the Loſs of 3000 Men.

Hague, Sept. 13, N. S. We have received from Petersbourg a printed Account of the Succeſſes of the Ruſſian Army commanded by Felt Marſhal Lacy, from the 23d of July to the 4th of Auguſt, the chief Particulars of which are, That on the ſaid 23d of July the Felt Marſhal being advanced within 29 Verſts of the Town of Baſſar, was attacked by a conſiderable Body of Tartars led by the Chan in Perſon, but after a ſhort Diſpute the Tartars fled towards the Mountains, and were purſued 15 Verſts by the Coſſacks and Calmucks, who killed a great Number of them. On the 25th, Lieutenant General Count Douglaſs advanced towards Baſſar with 6140 Dragoons and Foot, and was followed by the Felt Marſhal with all the reſt of the Army. Being come in Sight of the Town, they ſaw a Body of Turkiſh Troops poſted on a riſing Ground near it, conſiſting, as Priſoners reported, of 12 or 15000 Men; two Regiments of Dragoons, with all the Coſſacks and Calmucks of the Army, were ordered to attack that Body, and poſſeſs themſelves of Baſſar. They routed the Turks, took the Town, plundered it, ſet it on Fire and laid it all in Aſhes: There were in it 38 Mahometan Chapels, two Greek and Armenian Churches, 27 Magazines, 50 Water Mills, above 10000 Houſes, and many publick Buildings, moſt of them of Stone. The Booty was very great, the Inhabitants, of whom a great Number were put to the Sword, having no Time to ſave their Effects. On the 26th, the Army having retired from the Mountains about Baſſar, and deſcended into the Champian Country towards Ramajem, perceived a Body of about 70,000 of the Enemy advancing on the other Side of the River Karaſs: A Detachment of ſome Regiments of Foot and Dragoons, with the Coſſacks and Calmucks were ordered to paſs the River and engage them, which was done, and the Enemy were forced to retire with great Loſs. Among the Priſoners were two of their Murſas or chief Leaders. The Felt Marſhal ſpent from the 26th of July to the 1ſt of Auguſt in marching from the Karaſs to the Mouth of the River Sangurski; and in the Country all along to the Right and Left of the Route he took, he cauſed all the Villages of the Tartars, amounting in Number to above 1000, the Country being well peopled on that Side, to be burnt to the Ground; and above 60000 Head of Cattle and Sheep were brought into his Camp. The Enemy in ſeveral Bodies endeavoured to harraſs the Army in this March, but were conſtantly repulſed with no more Loſs to the Ruſſians in thoſe ſix Days than of Fifty Men killed and wounded. On the 2d of Auguſt Part of the Army paſſed the Sangurski. A conſiderable Body of Tartars appeared, which had been reinforced by 20000 Turks Foot and Horſe from Caffa, as Priſoners reported. A Detachment of ſome Regiments of Foot and Dragoons being ordered againſt them, after four Hours cannonading, the Enemy retired with great Loſs. On the 4th the Felt Marſhal paſſed the ſaid River with the reſt of the Army, deſigning to halt ſome Days in that Part of the Country which abounded with Forage, and then to renew the military Operations.
